Section 2. Oral Oath or Affirmation of Scrutineer
(Elections Act, R.S.N.B. 1973, c.E-3, s.73)

Notes to Poll Supervisor:

- This oral oath is to be administered by the Poll Supervisor upon initial admission to the Polling Station by a scrutineer who will be observing voting procedures and/or counting of the ballots.
- A scrutineer collecting copies of the Statement of Electors Who Voted on Polling Day is not required to take this oral oath, unless the scrutineer is also observing voting procedures and/or counting of the ballots.

Do you, (Name Of Scrutineer), of (Address Of Scrutineer), a scrutineer for (Name Of Candidate) at the (Name of Polling Station), at the elections held on this day in the Electoral District of (Name Of Electoral District), solemnly affirm (or swear) that you will keep secret the name of the candidate for whom, or the answer to any plebiscite or referendum question for which, any voter in that polling station marks his or her ballot paper at this election, and that you will otherwise carry out the requirements of the Elections Act relating to scrutineers?

If so, state "I SOLEMNLY AFFIRM (or SWEAR) THAT SUCH STATEMENTS ARE TRUE" (and if swearing, add "So help me God").
