Section 2.

Oral Oath or Affirmation of Scrutineer

(Municipal Elections Act, SNB, 1979, c. M-21-01, s. 23 and ss. 30(1))

Notes to Poll Supervisor:

- This oral oath is to be administered by the Poll Supervisor upon initial admission to the Polling Station of a scrutineer who will be observing voting procedures and/or counting of the ballots.
- A candidate shall not have more than one scrutineer present at a polling station at any time during voting hours or during the counting of the votes.

Do you, (Name of Scrutineer), of (Address of Scrutineer), a scrutineer for (Name of Candidate) at the (Name of Polling Station), at the elections held on this day, swear or solemnly affirm that you will keep secret the names of any candidates for whom, or the answer to any plebiscite or referendum question for which, any voter in that polling station marks their ballot paper at this election, and that you will otherwise carry out the requirements of the Municipal Elections Act relating to scrutineers?

If so, state "I SOLEMNLY AFFIRM (or SWEAR) THAT SUCH STATEMENTS ARE TRUE" (and if swearing, add "So help me God").
