

National Indigenous People's Day

On June 21, we invite all New Brunswickers to join in the celebration of National Indigenous People's Day. It's a day to honour the strength, resilience and leadership of Indigenous peoples across Canada, and in our province.

Today we celebrate First Nations traditions, values and identity, which are embedded in our province's history and are crucial to the success of New Brunswick's future. The Government of New Brunswick looks forward to continuing to work together to build a strong New Brunswick for all people.
